The 1952 ANTHONIAN

To a great History scholar

ST. ANTHONY HIGH SCHOOL
LONG BEACH, CALIFORNIA

Dedication

To Saint Anthony, of Padua, the patron of our school, this sixth issue of the ANTHONIAN is dedicated. May this profound and scholarly saint instill in us his spirit of prayer and sacrifice. May he teach us that love of Christ and His Virgin Mother which is the source and goal of all Christian energies; for only through His Cross and Her Rosary will the world understand the mystery of suffering and the joy of peace.

His Excellency Most Reverend J. Francis A. McIntyre, D.D.

Archbishop of Los Angeles

Pastor, St. Anthony's Parish

FACULTY

St. Anthony, Teacher

A deep knowledge and love of God, a sympathetic understanding of human nature, a wealth of common sense, and a tactful disposition—these gifts enabled St. Anthony to become a model teacher and a man of Christ. Natural and supernatural knowledge received through the power of prayer made him a masterpiece of wisdom and prudence. He concealed his brilliance until obedience commanded him to speak. With profound erudition and clarity of expression, he denounced the acute and unscrupulous minds that were spreading moral relaxation and disorder. In the Thirteenth Century, he acted as a beacon of light amidst the darkness of the Albigensian and Waldensian heresies. Through his teachings inspired by the Spirit of God, Anthony hammered the heretics into submission. St. Anthony of Padua, "Hammer of the Heretics," taught the triumph of Christ's power in the fight against error and sin.

STUDENT BODY

St. Anthony, Student

How did St. Anthony become a great scholar? He made the best use of the powers of his soul: he developed his mind to possess universal understanding and to have all knowledge lead to the Infinite; he trained his memory to store up numerous facts to be used in relationship to new learning; he gave his will complete command over himself to exercise the good in union with God's will. In his quiet manner he prayed and studied; studied and prayed. He shut out all distractions and allowed the light of wisdom to enter. He meditated upon the beauty, truth and love of God. He saw God in the whole of creation. Through application, concentration, work, and prayer, St. Anthony of Padua became one of the greatest scholars produced in the Thirteenth Century.

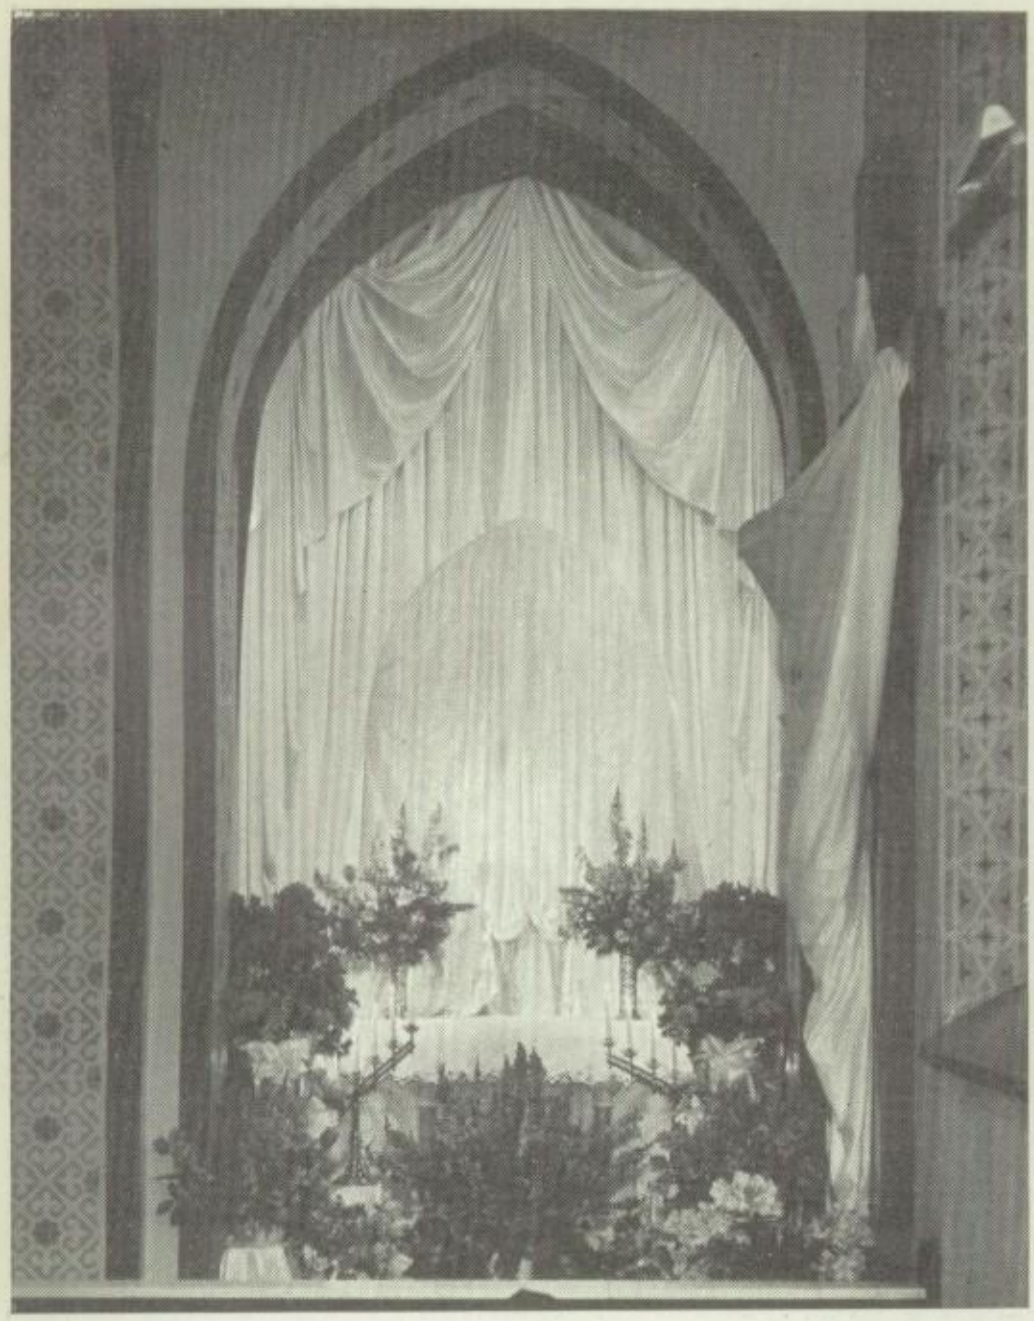
ACTIVITIES

St. Anthony, Man of Action

A middle-aged man of thirty-six years sits upright in a chair, sings O Gloriosa Domina and dies. Thus ended a brilliant career in the service of God. As in life, so in death: activity could not cease. St. Anthony, eminent scholar and profound professor, used his gifts to draw souls to Christ. This eloquent orator and priestly priest lead a life of sacrifice and prayer, so that the lost sheep would return to the fold. With the tools of moral courage and a deep spirit of faith in Christ, he faced the heretics and destroyed heresy. He fought furiously against the luxury, vice, immorality, and tryanny found in his day. He worked for the restoration of justice and took a great interest in the social problems of his time. He combined contemplation with activity, for his soul burned with a love of Christ and his tongue continuously spoke God's praises. His great activity still lives: even the little children of today know this seraphic saint, St. Anthony of Padua.



LENT

DAILY ROSARY

Father Boyer led the Rosary over the public address system, uniting both departments of the high school and the grammar school in praise of Our Blessed Lady.

KNIGHTS OF THE ALTAR

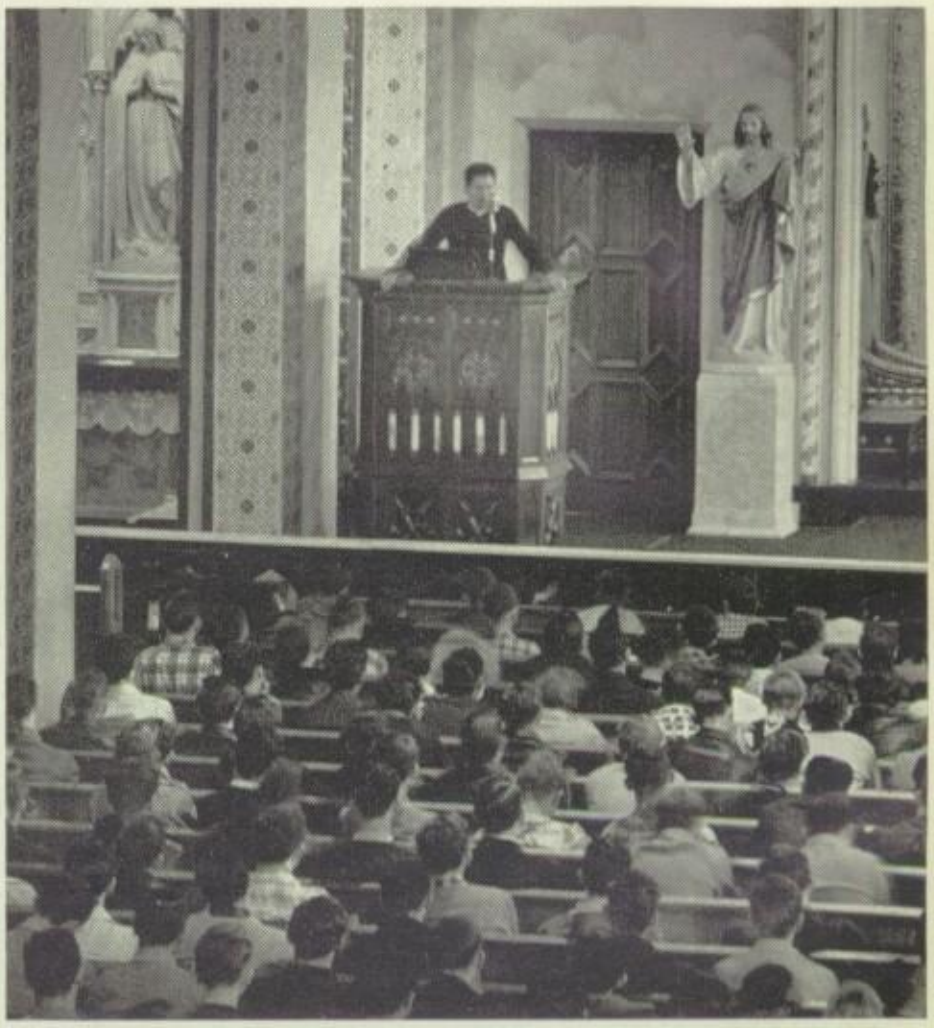
Retreat

Busy campus activities were suspended for the Annual Mid-Year Retreat, a time when eternal realities were more thoroughly considered, personal self-interrogations made and resolutions taken.



Father Louis Moore, C.M.F., directed the Boys' Retreat.

Father Aiden, C.P., led the Girls' exercises.

OUR LADY'S SODALITY

SENIOR SODALITY OFFICERS

Sylvia L'Angelle, Treasurer; Patricia Barlow, Secretary; Colleen Marron, Prefect; and Joan Dobb, Vice-Prefect.

For the Senior Sodality this year was one of spiritual, charitable, and social endeavors. The recitation of the Little Office, the Christmas parties for the underprivileged and public school children, and the Easter Baskets for the poor were the highlights of the year's activities.

Sodality Forum

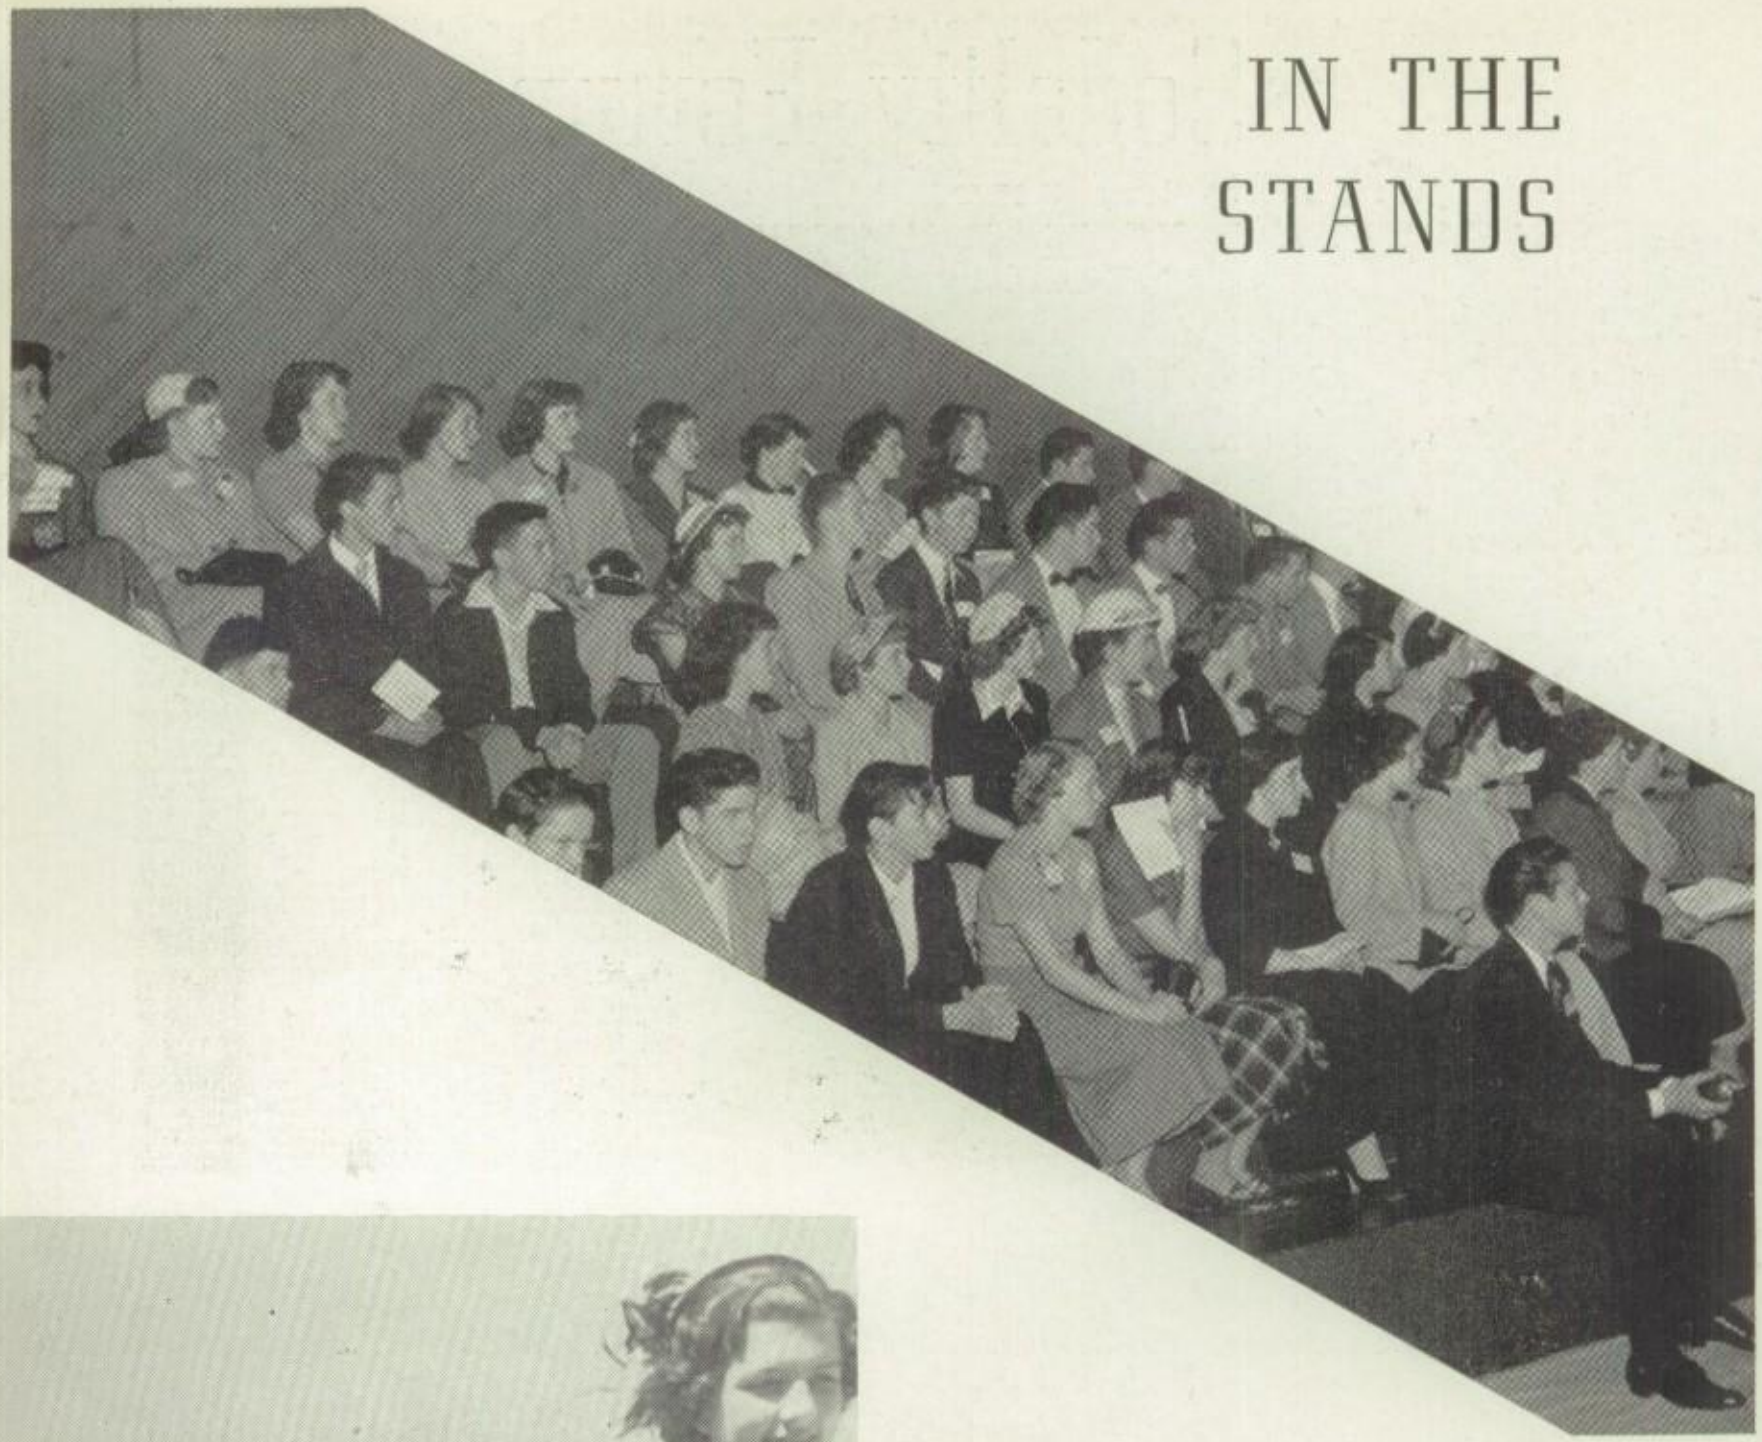
IN THE STANDS



Carole Wallace, Patricia Barlow, Joan Dobb, Elizabeth Martin, Donna Metcalf, and Joan Lilley take time out between sessions to look over the program for the Sodality Forum.

Sylvia L'Angelle, Ursula Delworth, and Anne Pyle entertain at the Sodality Christmas Party.

Patricia McVey, Mary Ann McCool, Mary Jane Reed, Germayne Hoerner, and Denise Parr prepare Easter baskets for needy families.

JUNIOR SODALITY OFFICERS

Jo Anne Blevins, Secretary; Vicki Cantoni, Vice-Prefect; Joan Lilley, Prefect; Lynda Macmillan, Treasurer.

The activities of the Junior Sodality are guided by five committees—Our Lady's, Apostolic, Publicity, Entertainment, and Eucharistic. Outstanding among the activities of this year were the "Catholic Author Contest", during Catholic Book Week; the cake sale, the proceeds of which bought Catholic pamphlets for the school; the May shrine and May devotion contests; the "Living Mass" charts; and Zanzibar Mission Day. At Christmas time the Sodality sponsored the annual party for the poor children; and at Easter, Sodalists collected food baskets for the poor.

VOCATION WEEK

Sister Mary Eileen, I.H.M., emphasized the importance and advantage of Catholic higher education.

During Vacation Week the senior boys and girls heard outstanding leaders discuss the many religious and secular vocations open to interested young men and women.

Mr. Anthony Joyce, prominent local lawyer, spoke on the opportunities for service and advancement in the study of law.

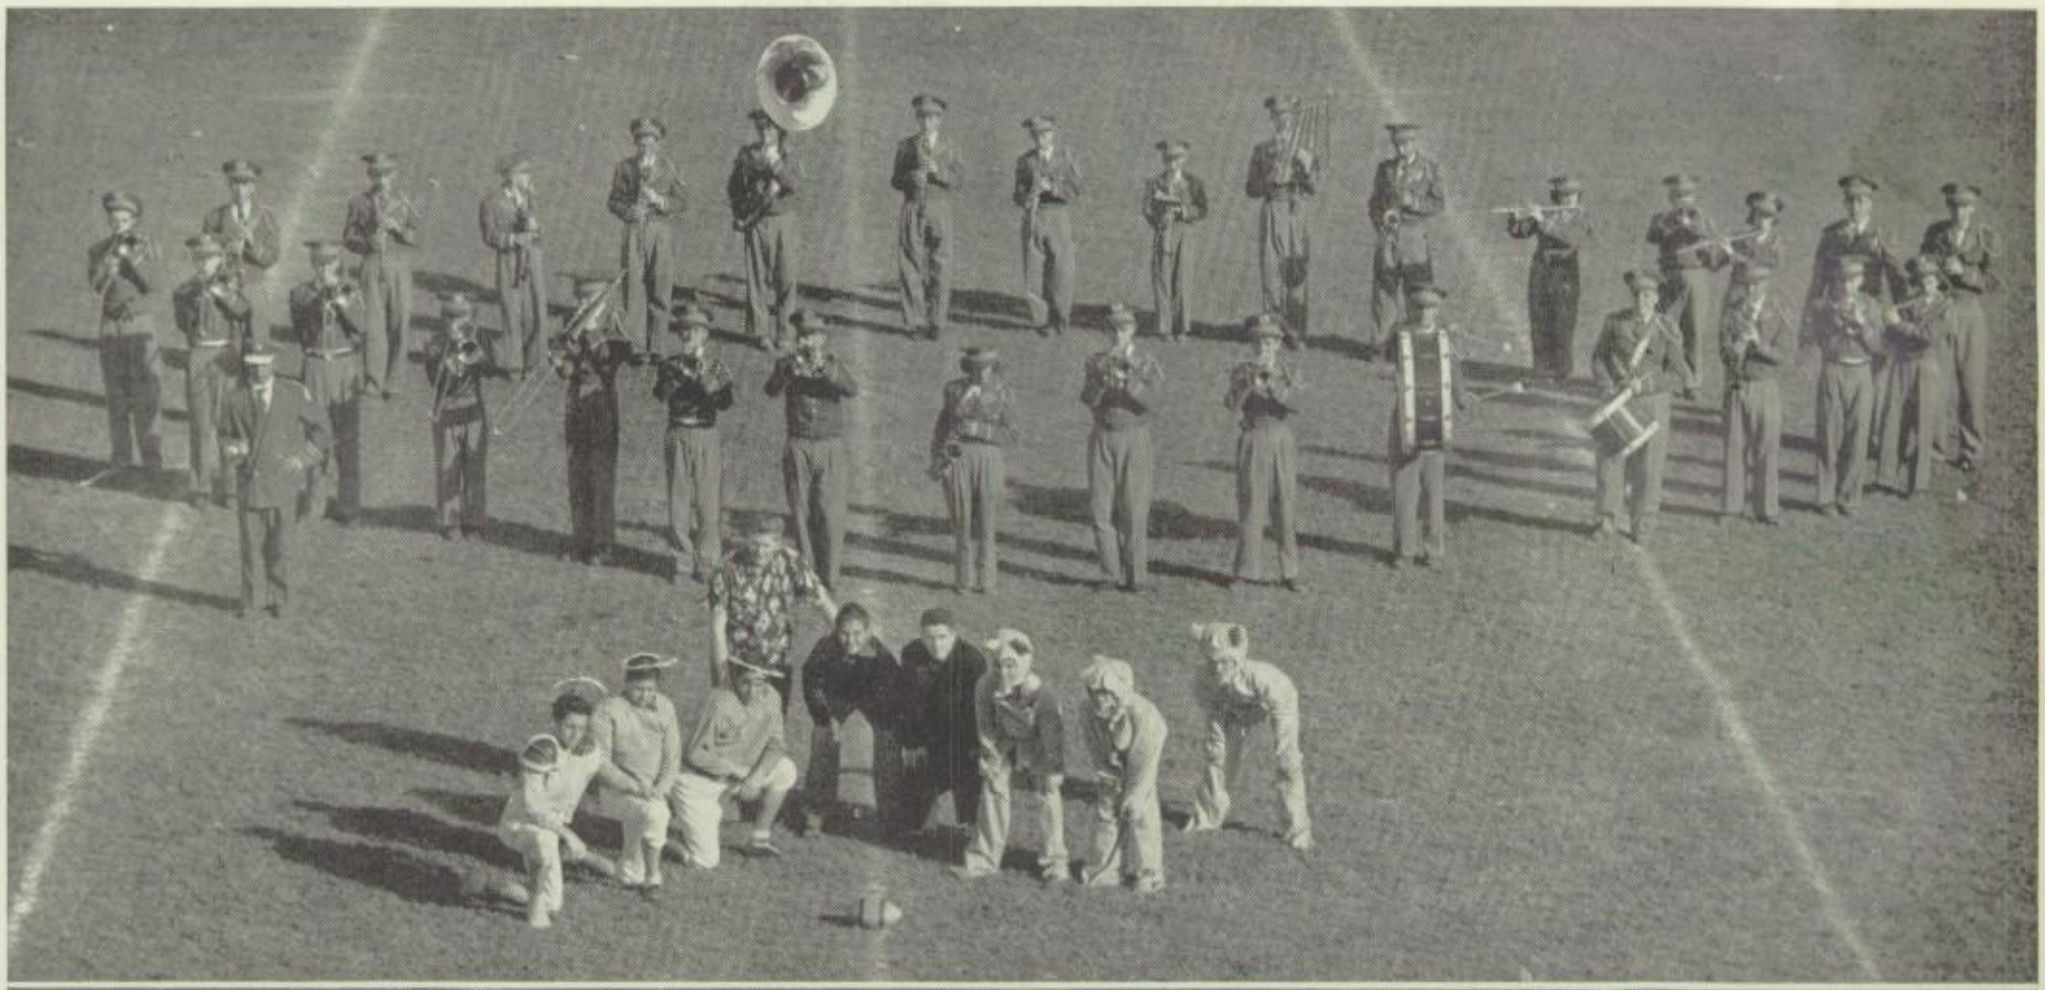
SAINT BAND MARCHING IN ALL WESTERN REVIEW

St. Anthony's Band completed its third year of activities after performing in thirty-two public appearances during 1951-52. During the football season the Band presented eight half-time shows, using the "Half-Timers," costumes, music and skits. During the eight weeks of the basketball season, the Band furnished music once a week at half times.

On November 11 the Band marched in the annual Armistice Day Parade in downtown Long Beach. On November 24, imitating a circus band with clowns and baloons, they paraded in the All Western Band Revue. Comments of local newspapers named St. Anthony's Band the most original entry of the 82 bands on parade. At Huntington Beach's annual Santa Claus Parade on November 30 the Band won its first trophy in competition with public high school bands of the area. In December it took part in another Yuletide parade in North Long Beach.

In February the Band made its first television appearance on KTTV, playing with the Notre Dame High School Band at half-time of an Industrial League basketball game. A short program was presented for the Mothers' Club in March and later a food sale sponsored by the Band Mothers enabled the Band to purchase a new saxophone and tuba.



BAND DISPLAYS "PIGSKIN" AND "TEEPEE" HALF-TIME FORMATIONS

The Band played for the championship basketball game of the Girls' Tournament. The first public concert in the Band's short history was given on April 15 in Recreation Park at the All Catholic Girls' Play Day. On April 19 another trophy was awarded the organization in the Pan-American Day Parade in Lakewood. On April 20 the Band participated in a Catholic Music Festival at Mount St. Mary's College. Other spring parades included one for the installation of the Knights of Columbus of the fourth degree on April 27, a convention parade on May 17, and a Procession in honor of Our Lady of Fatima at Artesia on May 17. The year closed with the Irish Fiesta in Los Angeles and a concert for the parents of Band members on May 25.

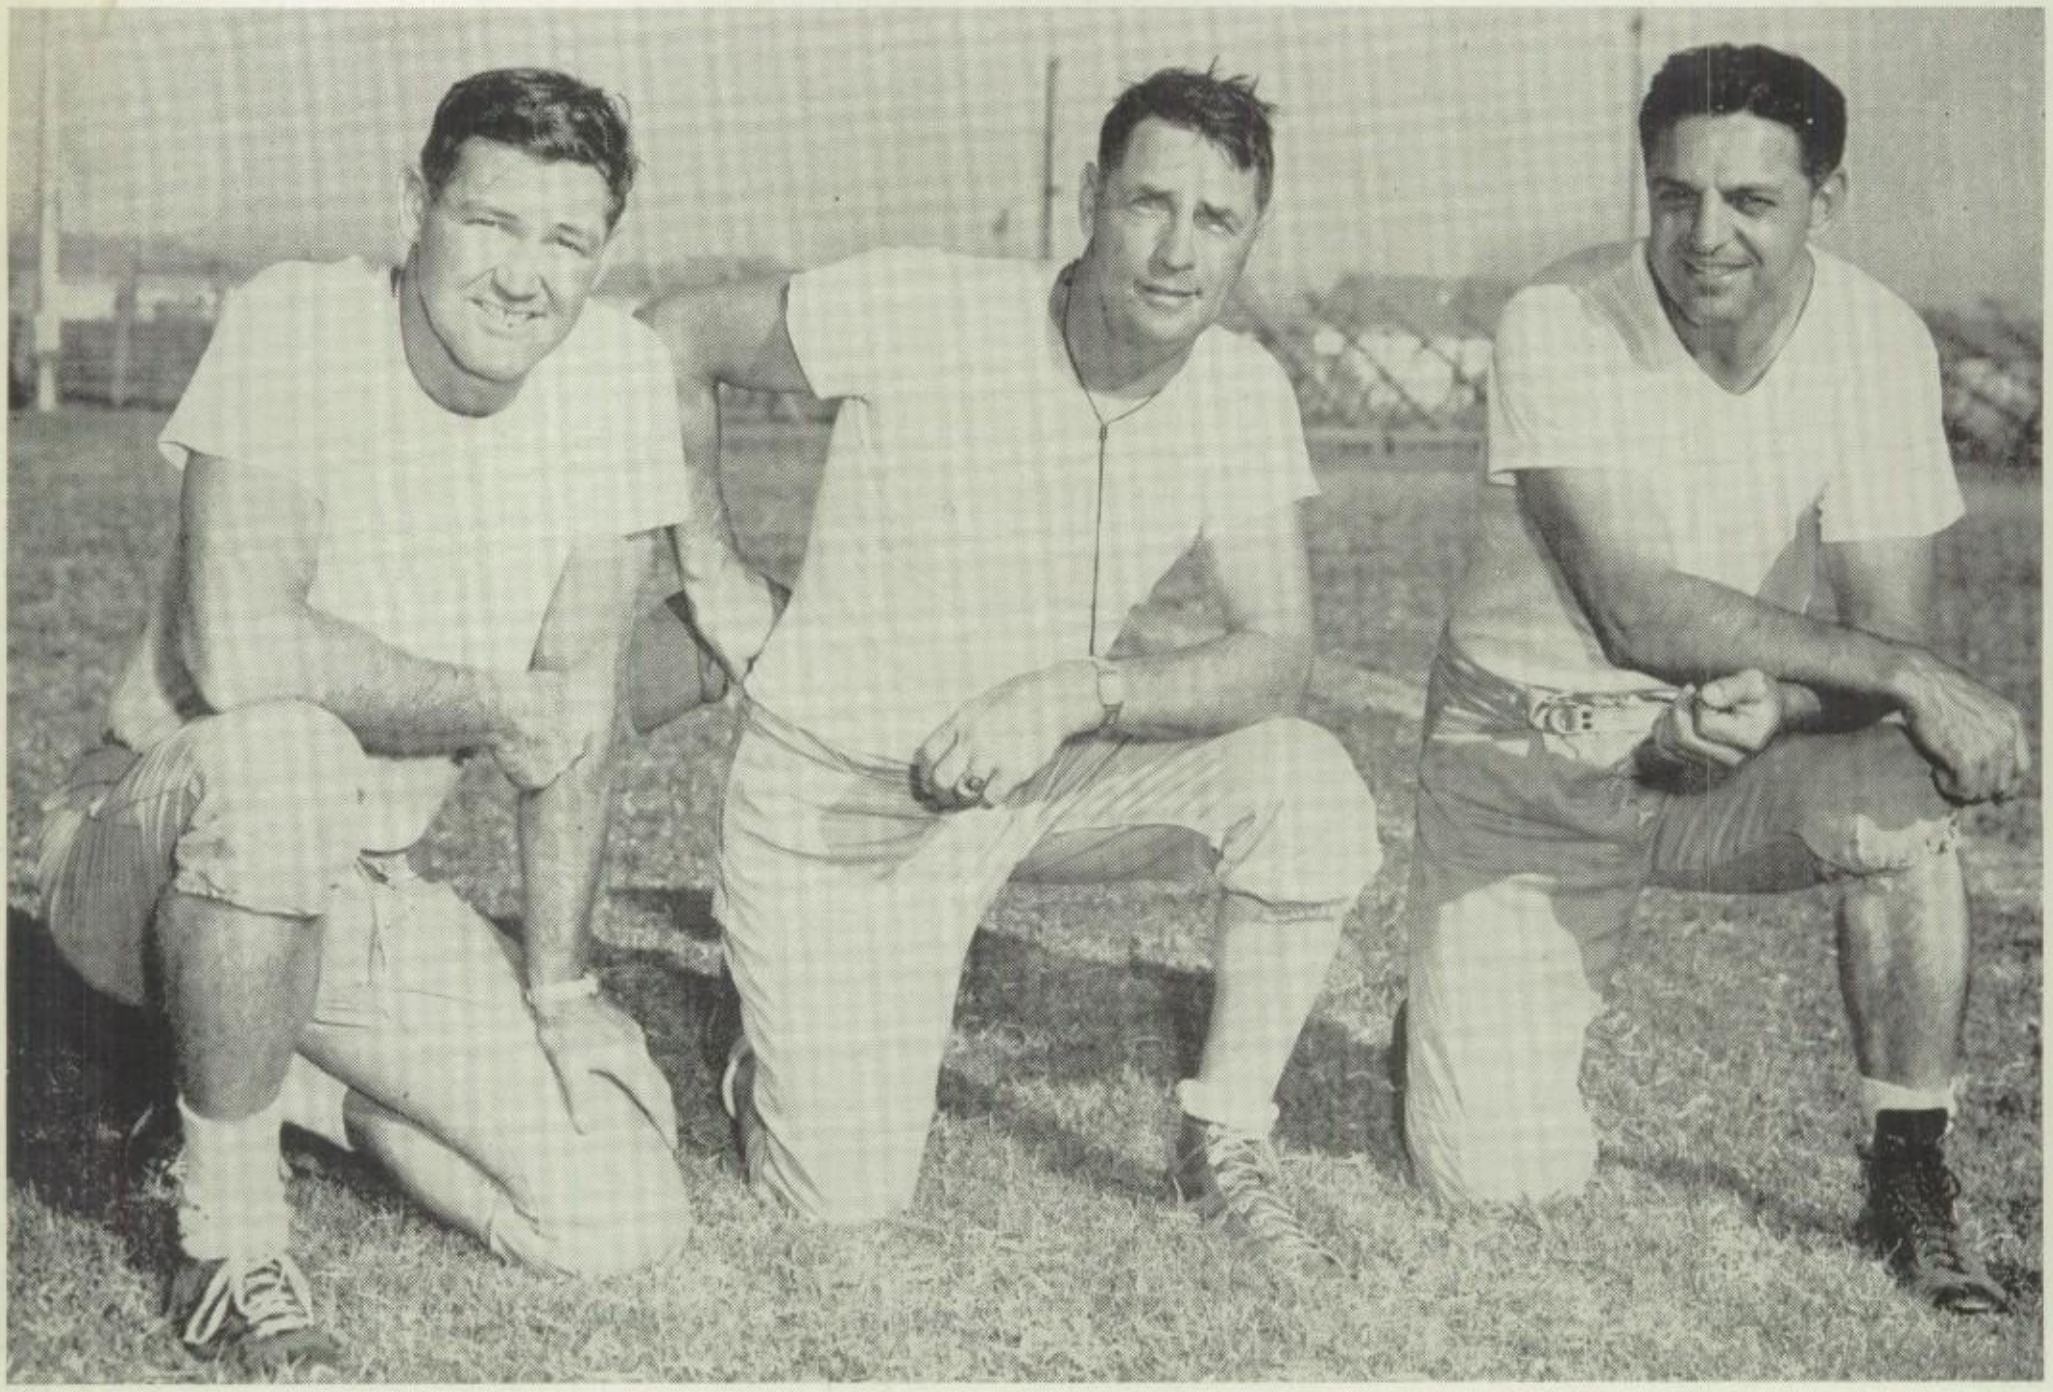
ATHLETICS

St. Anthony, Athlete of Christ

"Know you not that they run in the race, all run indeed, but one receiveth the prize?" From his youth St. Anthony exercised the energies of his soul to win the race of life. He out-distanced his enemies and left the heretics far behind. He wrestled against the forces of Satan and conquered to bring more souls to Christ. He entered each contest with strength and zeal, fortitude and preserverance, with a spirit of co-operation and a determination to win. He forgot himself and fought to bring victory for the glory of his Captain and School, Christ and the Church. Well could he utter these words as he left the field of life: "I have fought a good fight. As to the rest, there is laid up for me a crown of justice, which the Lord the just Judge will render to me in that day."

FOOTBALL



SAINT COACHING STAFF: Hank Ennen, Jacques Grenier, Ennio Arboit.

Jacques Grenier became Director of Athletics and head football coach at St. Anthony's in 1946. In the past six years under his guidance, St. Anthony football teams battled their way to the top of the Catholic League twice, in 1947 and 1948. The year 1948 brought forth a "Golden Saint" team which won the C. I. F. Championship of Southern California, starring the brilliant John Olszewski. Grenier's over-all record at the Saint helm is 40 wins, 10 losses and two ties.

Hank Ennen, assistant coach, has completed three years as line-builder at St. Anthony's. Several of Hank's proteges have merited All-City and All-Catholic laurels: Jim Reed, Vince DiLeva, and Pete Eifert in '49; Dick Shlemmer, Jack Cheatham and DiLeva in '50; Norm Nelson, Nick Oreb and Ken Lopolito in '51. Reed was an All-C.I.F. selection in '49.

Assistant Coach Ennio Arboit helped Grenier and Ennen develop fine ends and backs in his first year on the Saint staff. Arboit, who brings a good record with him from Spaulding Institute in Peoria, Illinois, is expected to aid the Saint cause considerably in 1952.

PIGSKIN STORY

Carnival-Saints, 12; Mt. Carmel, 7. The third play of the '51 season showed that the Saints were to be a high-powered team. Captain Jim Mantellino went into the end zone from six yards out for the first score. Lambert kicked wide. After a Crusader score, Brannen zoomed in from the six for the final score. Long's placement was wide. Shearer and Jim Klosterman looked sharp, as did QB Matthews.

Saints, 18; Santa Maria, 0. The egg diet and the long trip didn't slow the men from the South down. Working from behind Patonai's double-spin, Brannen chalked up two and Mantellino, one. The Saint defensive unit was tough, never allowing Santa Maria to cross midfield. Redd sparked the defense. Nick Oreb, Cheuvront, Nelson and Long kept springing the Saint backs loose with their vicious blocking.

Saints, 7; Compton, 13. It was a cold, cold night for all loyal Saint fans as the fleet Saint backs were not given the blocking and could not crack the Compton defense. The Saints from Compton, Jim Klosterman, Simon and Schilz, were knocked down hard by the big Tartar forwards. Brannen made the lone score and Murchison converted. Shearer scampered 60 yards for a TD which was nullified by a penalty. DeSanto was the outstanding player offensively and defensively for the Saints. On the line McVeigh, Rainey and Lopolito were tops offensively, and Lambert, Flynn and Galloni were strong defensively.

Saint, 39; Cantwell, 6. Tom Klosterman's debut at QB was a roaring success. Mantellino scored twice: 28 yards with an interception, and 12 yards around end. Brannen drove over tackle for six more points and on a Patonai pitch-out Simon went 34 yards for another. Nelson scooped up a Cardinal fumble and in Coach Arboit fashion raced 91 yards for a score. Shearer romped 18 yards up the middle on a Matthews' hand-off for the last score. Murchison converted three times. Dunn, Carroll and Mike Oreb were the sharpest of the very sharp forward wall.

Saints, 12; Whittier, 14. Inspired play by DeSanto and Mantellino was not enough to beat the Redbirds. Brannen drew first blood on a seven-yard off-tackle smash and a Tom Klosterman to Mantellino aerial to the two-yard line set up Mantellino's score. Whittier blocked one and deflected the other of Murchison's attempted conversions.

Saints, 27; Exceslior, 7. The San Pedro Saints found the fog to their liking as the locals overwhelmed Excelsior at their fog-bound field. Brannen took the opening kickoff and streaked 85 yards through the fog and the Pilots for six points. Mantellino picked off the first Pilot pass and returned it to their one. He scored on the next play. DeSanto scored before the half on a short jaunt around end. After the Pilots had scored, Brannen added six more from eight yards out, aided by Hamel's key block. Murchison converted three for four. Arroyo, Bramble and Reiman played good defensive ball.

Brannen is stopped by Compton Tarbabes after lengthy gain. Galloni lands on scene as Nick Oreb (prone) pulls himself together.

Saints, 26; Notre Dame, 0. The Saints picked up their second league win on the speed and power of Brannen and DeSanto. Brannen romped for two TD's on runs of 59 and 70 yards and had an 85-yard scoring play called back. DeSanto bulled over for his first score and circled end for his second. Murchison converted twice. Brown, Peterson, Gillespie and Mehren added a little weight to Coach Ennen's strong defensive unit.

Saints, 0; Loyola, 7. Saint hopes for the C. L. crown suffered a serious setback at the hands of the Loyola Cubs. The Saint defense was ironclad except for a brief period early in the first quarter when the Cubs scored on a pass play. Loyola was equally stingy defensively. The most serious Saint scoring threat came late in the fourth quarter, but it fizzled on the Cub four-yard line. Brannen, Mantellino, DeSanto, Oreb, Nelson, Long, McVeigh, Carroll, Galloni, Brown, Lopolito, Lambert, Reiman—all the Saints played a great game.

Saints, 7; Cathedral, 26. The Saints lost this one in the first half. Cathedral quenched any spark of hope for the Saints to win the C. L. crown with 19 points in that half. However, in the second half Matthews and the double-wing replaced Klosterman and the "T." Matthews completed six out of 12 passes to set up Brannen's five-yard smash into the end zone. The Saints showed their old fight in the waning moments, but could not overcome the big lead. Crehan returned to the lineup, and with Lambert, Reiman, and Arroyo looked good on defense. DeSanto, Mantellino, Brannen, Shearer and Matthews sparkled on defense.

Saints, 39; Mt. Carmel, 0. In the '51 finale the Saints let go and showed that they were a good team. The seniors played their last game the way they played all the others, the way Coach Grenier had taught them: hard, clean, to win, and soprtsmanlike. A Klosterman-Nelson pass good for 59 yards netted the first score. A Matthews-DeSanto aerial for 21 yards upped the score. DeSanto took a pitch-out and raced nine yards for the third tally. Shearer scooted over from the four for number four. Brannen raced 64 yards behind devastating down-field blocking. Nelson added the last six points by taking a 59-yard Matthews toss. Murchison added three points after touchdowns. Carroll, Long, Chilcote, Lopolito, Nick Oreb, Reiman, Patonai, Cheuvront, and the other seniors played a fine game as did all the squad.

7. Oreb, Mantellino, and Brannen bury Phantom runner.

8. McVeigh grimaces as a Phantom scores. Brannen, Galloni and DeSanto can't help.

Tribute

We, the students of St. Anthony High School, wish to express our gratitude to those who have contributed much to our education. We are indebted particularly to a noble Catholic lady, who has made possible our enjoyment of the fullest gifts necessary to education. She has realized the importance of Catholic instruction and training; she has expressed her great love of youth by her generous gifts to our school. Through her magnanimity she has made possible the facilities to enable us to reach greater heights in intellectual and spiritual living. Her gifts freely given cannot be measured in books or material, but they must be appreciated in the light of the Eternal. Through the long years of our lives we shall remember always this noble lady, this generous benefactress, this Christ-like lover of youth. We, the members of the class of 1952, wish to pay particular tribute to her who has helped us become young Christians of strong character. Papal Countess Mary Young Moore, LL.D., we salute you and pray that God and His Immaculate Mother will continue to shower blessings upon you.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

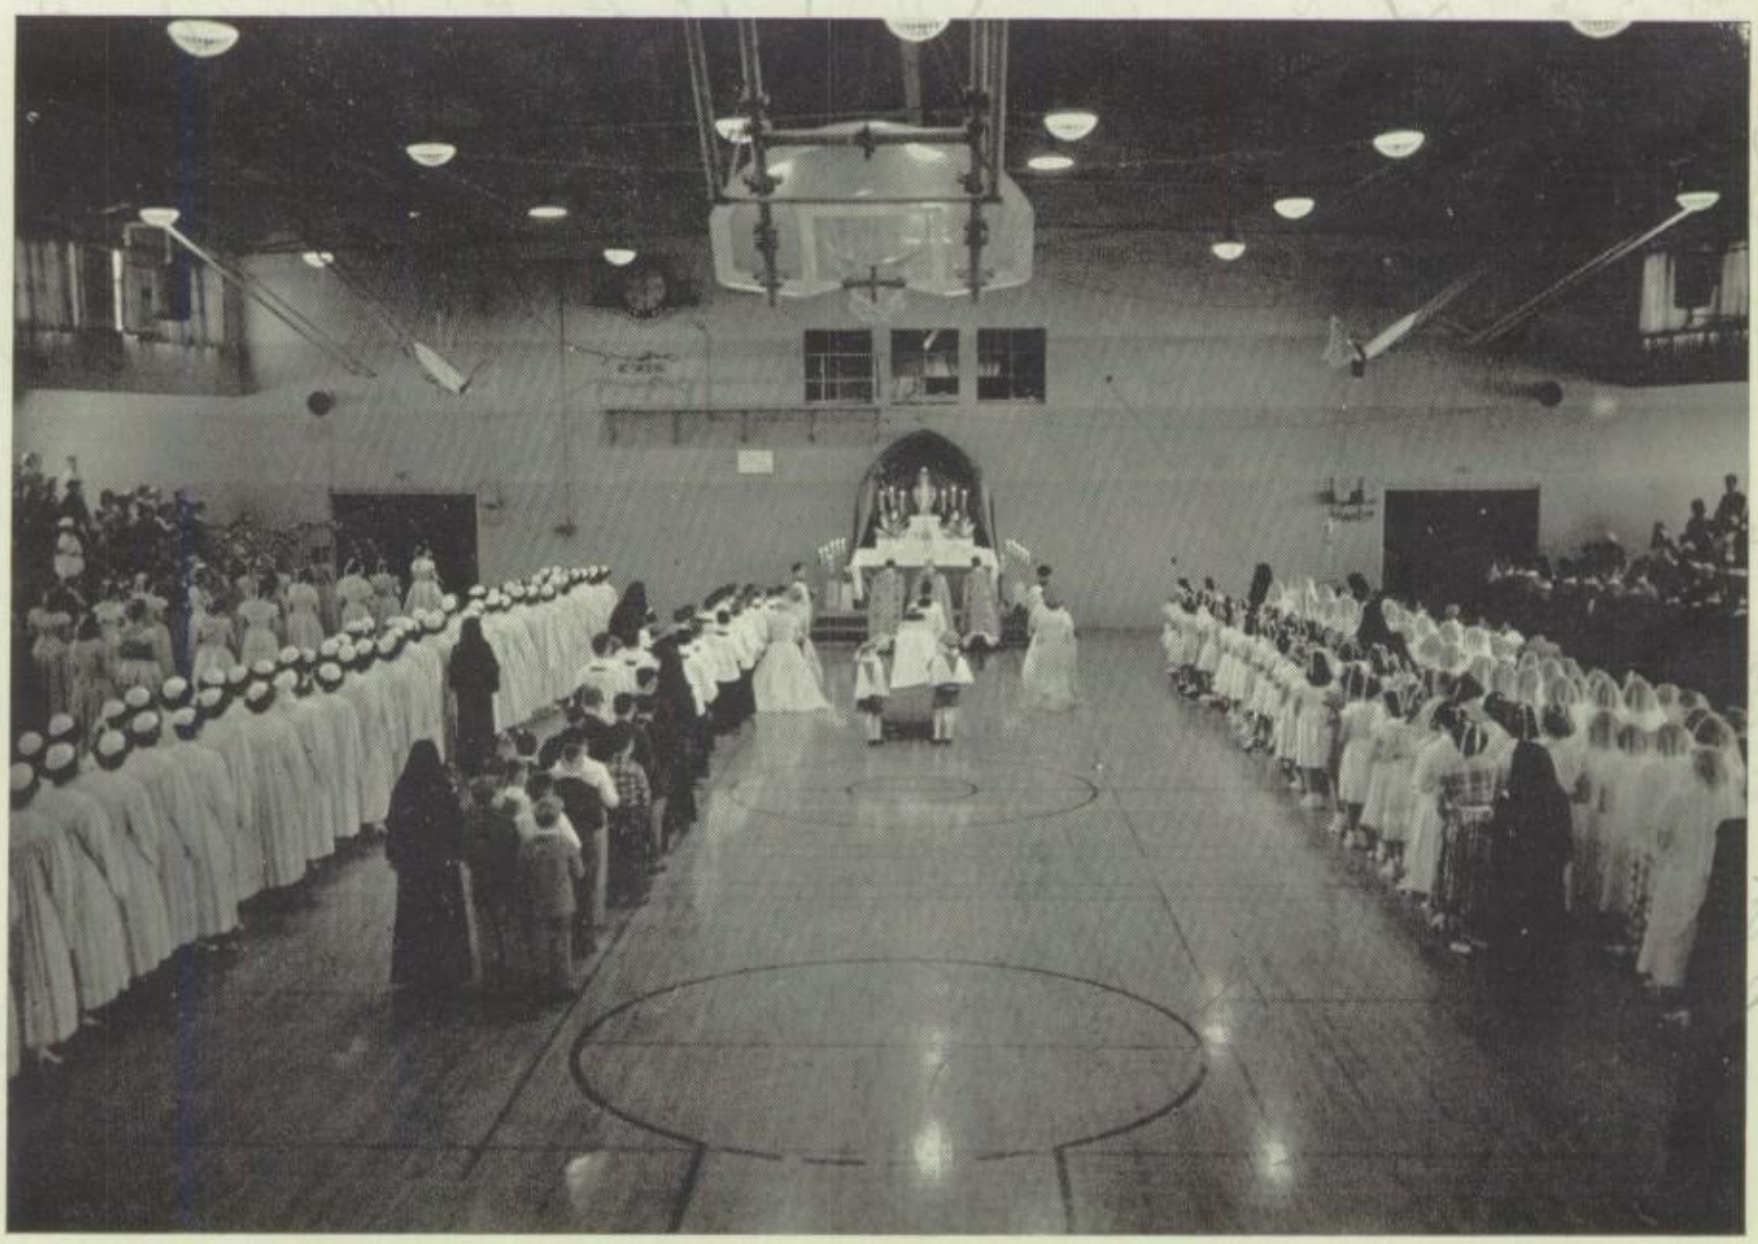
St. Anthony Students Pay Homage to the Blessed Virgin in the Annual May Procession

Sodality Prefect, Colleen Marron, crowns the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Her attendants are Joan Dobb, Anne Pyle, Sylvia L'Angelle, and Patricia Barlow. Crown Bearer is Mary Constance Brady.

Queen Colleen Marron marched at the end of the procession.



The procession began in the Catholic Center with Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.
